Summary of Services and Results Achieved

21. As described in further detail below, at the request and direction of the Special Claims Committee, Ileana C. Cardona Fernández served as local conflicts counsel in several species of litigation arising from the Oversight Board’s Special Investigation Committee report in 2018. These litigation actions generally fall into three categories: (i) avoidance actions against vendors; (ii) avoidance actions against bondholders; and (iii) other third-party actions. Through the litigation, at times in collaboration with official committees and other aligned parties, the Special Claims Committee sought to preserve and liquidate valuable litigation claims held by the Title III debtors for their benefit in the Title III proceedings. Ileana C. Cardona Fernández’s support as local conflicts counsel to the efforts resulted in debt reductions under the Commonwealth’s plan of adjustment valued at hundreds of millions of dollars, in addition to unliquidated litigation claims and related proceeds transferred to the Avoidance Actions Trust for prosecution and subsequent distribution to creditors.

22. Shortly after the commencement of the Title III proceedings, the Special Investigation Committee of the Oversight Board engaged an independent investigator to carry out its mandate under Section 104 to conduct a comprehensive investigation and review of the factors contributing to Puerto Rico’s fiscal crisis, debt issuances, related disclosure and selling practices, use of proceeds from debt offerings, and how its debt practices compare to the debt practices of states and large municipal jurisdictions.

23. At the conclusion of the investigation, FOMB published the independent investigator's final report, which included an analysis of the historical and more recent macroeconomic and political factors contributing directly and indirectly to Puerto Rico's fiscal crisis, the Puerto Rico municipal bond issuance process, and the legislative efforts to restructure the debt, in addition to its investigative findings, policy recommendations, and identification of potential claims and matters for regulatory attention.

24. Within a few days after the publication of the final report, FOMB created its Special Claims Committee to pursue claims and causes of action resulting from the findings in the final report.

25. As a matter of background, prior to Ileana C. Cardona Fernández's retention, during the month of December 2018 the Special Claims Committee and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of the Title III Debtors (other than PBA and COFINA) (the "Committee") filed a joint claim objection seeking to invalidate certain general obligation bonds issued by the Commonwealth in 2012 and 2014 because they were purportedly issued in violation of the Commonwealth's constitutional debt limit. The Court entered a procedures order for a process to identify parties interested in participating in the claim objection litigation and to develop a meet and confer process to identify the timing and sequencing of the claim objection litigation.

26. Additionally, in advance of the expiration of the statute of limitations for the Commonwealth, HTA, ERS, and PREPA, the Special Claims Committee jointly filed, with the Committee, several hundred lawsuits seeking to recover billions of dollars in prepetition payments the respective Title III debtors made to various vendors, suppliers, bondholders, and professionals, as described below.

27. Prior to Ms. Cardona's retention, the Special Claims Committee filed a complaint against several underwriting investment banks, law firms, and other professionals that advised the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and other Title III debtors in connection with the issuance of certain bonds subject to validity challenges.

28. In this action, the Special Claims Committee asserted that the debtors can recover fees and other damages in connection with, among other things, wrongful conduct in financial and professional services transactions with the debtors.

29. In July 2019, the action was stayed by a general order directing mediation to develop the Commonwealth's plan of adjustment. Under the Plan and related settlements, the litigation was transferred to the Avoidance Actions Trust on the Effective Date to be prosecuted and liquidated for the benefit of unsecured creditors of the Commonwealth.

30. After months of extensive review of the Title III debtors' prepetition payment histories, the Special Claims Committee found cause to file approximately 340 avoidance actions to avoid and recover payments by the various Title III debtors against hundreds of suppliers and vendors to Puerto Rico because the payments were made in violation of Puerto Rico law, the transfers are recoverable as preferences, and/or constructive fraudulent transfers under the Bankruptcy Code.

31. On April 30, 2019, the Special Claims Committee retained Ileana C. Cardona Fernández, Esq. as local conflicts counsel to assist Claims Counsel in a total of eight (8) litigation and non-litigated matters wherein their already retained local counsel had conflicts of interest and were unable to appear as counsel of record.

32. Approximately 90 vendors accepted offers to resolve litigation claims without formal litigation, and the Special Claims Committee commenced approximately 250 adversary proceedings against the remaining vendors. Cognizant of the burden the vendor actions have caused the business community, the Special Claims Committee instituted an informal resolution process for the actions and obtained court approval establishing litigation deadlines and settlement parameters to support the effort to resolve these actions on a consensual, out-of-court basis.

33. Prior to the Plan Effective Date, Ileana C. Cardona Fernández assisted Claims Counsel and the Special Claims Committee, in partnership with the Committee, to resolve the eight (8) filed or tolled claims in which she appeared without litigation. The Oversight Board during that time negotiated a settlement with the Committee whereby the remaining claims, together with the settlement proceeds and related assets, were transferred to the Avoidance Actions Trust on the Effective Date for liquidation and distribution to holders of unsecured claims.

The Application Should be Granted

34. Ileana C. Cardona Fernández, Esq. respectfully submits that the services for which she seeks compensation and the expenditures for which she seeks reimbursement in this Final Fee Application were necessary and beneficial to the Oversight Board. In light of the nature, extent and value of such services, Ileana C. Cardona Fernández, Esq. submits that the compensation requested herein is reasonable.

35. The compensation for Ileana C. Cardona Fernández, Esq.'s services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problems, issues or tasks involved. The professional services were performed with expedition and in an efficient manner.

36. In sum, the services rendered by Ileana C. Cardona Fernández, Esq. were necessary and beneficial to the Oversight Board, were reasonable in light of the value of such services to the Oversight Board and were performed with skill and expertise. Accordingly, Ileana C. Cardona Fernández, Esq. submits that approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses requested in this Final Fee Application is warranted.

All fees and services during this Compensation Period were rendered and incurred within Puerto Rico.
